

APPLE SBC-100 - THE BEATLES' CHRISTMAS ALBUM [Fan Club release]

Winchester

Note: Counterfeits of this album exist.

Counterfeits can be distinguished from the real thing by checking these characteristics:

- 1) Counterfeit covers have blurred photos on the front. On legitimate covers, in the picture located in the lower left corner, both of Ringo's eyeballs are clearly visible. On all confirmed counterfeit copies, the right eye is covered by a dark shadow. On the adjacent picture, on original copies the words THEATRE ROYAL over Paul and John's heads are legible, on counterfeit copies they are not.
- 2) All covers printed on white posterboard are counterfeits (originals have slicks pasted onto the cover).
- 3) All legitimate copies of "The Beatles Christmas Album" were manufactured by Capitol Records at its Winchester, Virginia factory. The pressing machines used by Capitol leave a visible 1 ½" - diameter indentation ring located 5/8" from the center hole. If the record has a different size indentation ring, then it is a counterfeit (Most counterfeit copies have a significantly larger indentation ring).

THE GRAMMY

The Grammy is the most coveted award in the field of recording — the highest honor that a recording, a recording artist or a song can achieve — recognition for creative excellence.

A husband-and-wife team, after the early presentation, the Grammy is awarded only once for outstanding artistic achievement in the field of recording. The award is presented to the artist, composer, performer, producer, engineer, and other personnel who have contributed to the creation of the recording.
